COMPANY VEHICLE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

AMS SECURITY HAS A ZERO HARM POLICY

BE SAFETY CONSCIOUS AT ALL TIMES

1. POLICY

AMS Security will only release Company Vehicles strictly for company duties as designated to employees who follow the listed terms and conditions with no exception or personal disclaimer of liability.

Employees will be held accountable for the state and condition of the AMS Security company vehicle they are assigned.

Additionally, employees will be held responsible for promptly reporting any damage and assuming the financial liability for any damage caused to the AMS Security company vehicle assigned to them if found at fault.

The determination of fault for any damages/mechanical issues incurred to the AMS Security vehicle will be made by either AMS Management, the Police, Insurance assessors, or other third-party assessors.

Employees are required to pay and accept full liability for any of the following:

- Government-issued infringement notices, Council notices and Private Corporation notices with respect to parking legislation.
- Any damage caused to AMS security vehicles will be repaired by an AMS Security approved repairer and claimed via insurance. If deemed at fault, the employee will be held responsible for all associated vehicle repair costs up to the amount of the insurance excess and any age excess if applicable.
- Any damage caused to AMS Security vehicles that is less than the amount of insurance excess will be repaired by an AMS Security approved repairer and not claimed via insurance. If deemed at fault, the employee will be held responsible for all associated vehicle repair costs.
- Any damage caused to AMS Security vehicles that requires but not limited to any of the following will be repaired by an AMS Security approved repairer. If deemed at fault, the employee will be held responsible for all associated vehicle repair/replacement costs.
